If you want to appeal a ruling of CPP and/or EI, you can use Form CPT100. To file an objection to a notice of assessment or a notice of determination issued under the Income Tax Act, you can use Form T400A. In all cases, you can choose to send a letter detailing your request, signed by the appellant or by an authorized officer of the corporation.

It is important that you detail the working conditions of the workers to which the assessment applies and all relevant facts and reasons why your appeal should be allowed, and the assessment vacated or varied. Also include any relevant documents that support your appeal, such as contracts, copies of cancelled pay cheques, or shareholder's agreements. For more information about your appeal rights and the appeal process, we refer you to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) Website at www.cra.gc.ca and to our publication P133, Your Appeal Rights – Canada Pension Plan and Employment Insurance Coverage.

The CRA Web site also provides information and clear explanations of CPP/EI matters, which will aid you in preparing your appeal submission. You will find a number of publications and a series of interpretive articles on CPP and on EI matters. For information regarding employment status, we recommend you read our publication RC4110, Employee or Self-employed?.
